Attorney General Luther Strange Vows to Protect Ratepayers in Jefferson County Sewer System Settlement

(Montgomery) - Alabama Attorney General Luther Strange issued the following statement following today's meeting of the Jefferson County Commission: "I commend the Jefferson County Commission for its leadership and hard work for the people of the county. The job of the Attorney General's Office is to represent the sewer system ratepayers, and we will diligently review the rate structure contained in the proposed settlement to ensure that rates are just and reasonable."
