AG STRANGE REMINDS ALABAMIANS
JUNE 8, 2015, DEADLINE TO FILE BP CLAIMS

(MONTGOMERY)--Attorney General Luther Strange reminded Alabamians today that June 8, 2015, is the deadline for eligible claimants to file to collect compensation from BP due to the 2010 Gulf Oil Spill.

“BP has repeatedly stated that it is committed to paying all legitimate claims arising from the 2010 Gulf Oil Spill. Therefore, all Alabama citizens, businesses, and organizations that have legitimate claims should file for compensation by the June 8, 2015, deadline for the Economic and Property Damages Settlement. Failure to file may result in otherwise legitimate claims being denied.”

General Strange also reminded Alabamians that his office investigates and prosecutes fraudulent claims: “The claims process is intended to compensate individuals and businesses that meet the qualifying criteria for legitimate claims. We remain committed to the investigation and prosecution of those who file false or fraudulent claims.”

Attorney General Strange encouraged Alabamians with questions regarding their eligibility to contact the claims program either by visiting the program’s website, www.deepwaterhorizonsettlements.com, or by calling 1-886-992-6174.
