ATTORNEY GENERAL STRANGE ANNOUNCES ALABAMA JOINS MULTI-STATE INVESTIGATION OF VOLKSWAGEN

(MONTGOMERY) - Attorney General Luther Strange announced Thursday that Alabama has joined a coalition of at least 27 states that is investigating potential fraud by Volkswagen. Alabama will be among the states issuing subpoenas to Volkswagen as part of the multi-state probe of the auto manufacturer's representations of its diesel vehicle emissions.

"We take any allegations of consumer fraud very seriously and will review the representations made by Volkswagen to its diesel customers in Alabama," said Attorney General Strange.

In addition to Alabama, other states participating in the investigation include, Arizona, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont and Virginia, as well as the District of Columbia.
