AG STRANGE, HOME BUILDERS ASSOCIATION OFFER PSA GIVING TIPS FOR PROTECTION AGAINST HOME REPAIR FRAUD IN WAKE OF TORNADOES THAT STRUCK ALABAMA

(MONTGOMERY) – Attorney General Luther Strange and the Alabama Home Builders Association joined together to provide a public service announcement to protect Alabama’s citizens from home repair fraud in the wake of the tornadoes that struck Alabama last week.

“It is important that we get the message out to criminals who would prey on our citizens that the law enforcement of Alabama is on guard and we will not tolerate anyone causing further harm to our people who have suffered the devastation of these tornadoes and storms,” said Attorney General Strange. “It is equally important that we provide our citizens with the best weapons against home repair fraud, which are knowledge and prevention. I urge the radio stations of Alabama to run these PSAs often as a valuable means of protecting and serving their communities.”

Radio stations may access the 60-second PSA to download for their use through this link, and then save to desktop or other location on pc and copy and play from there:
