

AG STRANGE REVIEWS COMPLAINTS OF VIOLATIONS OF ALABAMA GUN LAWS AT PARK, SENIOR CENTERS IN ABBEVILLE, EVA

(MONTGOMERY) - Attorney General Luther Strange today released public statements about formal complaints received by his office concerning possible unlawful prohibitions of firearms by a park and senior centers in Abbeville and Eva. After reviewing and investigating each complaint, where appropriate, the Attorney General's Office worked with the public entity to achieve compliance with state law.

The results of the Attorney General's investigations are summarized below, along with links to his determinations.

City of Abbeville

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that the City of Abbeville failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms at the Abbeville Senior Center. After the Attorney General communicated with the City, the signs prohibiting firearms were removed. Because the signs are removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required.

Town of Eva

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that the Town of Eva failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms at the Shorty Ryan Park and Eva Senior Center. After the Attorney General communicated with the Town, the signs prohibiting firearms were removed. Because the signs are removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required.
