AG STRANGE, STATE BAR PRESIDENT COPELAND REMIND THAT ALABAMA LEGAL FOOD FRENZY FOR FOOD BANKS BEGINS MONDAY

(MONTGOMERY) – Attorney General Luther Strange and Alabama State Bar President Lee H. Copeland are reminding lawyers that the Alabama Food Frenzy begins on Monday, April 25 and lasts through May 6. The Legal Food Frenzy is a competition this spring among law firms to benefit food banks throughout the state.

The Attorney General has joined with the Alabama State Bar and the Alabama Food Bank Association to sponsor this important event. The law firm or legal organization that collects the most pounds of food per employee will receive The Attorney General’s Cup, with other honors to be awarded in categories based upon the firm’s size. Food will be weighed in at food banks and monetary donations will be counted as four pounds of food for each dollar.

To register your legal organization or for more information visit <http://allegalfoodfrenzy.org/>. If you have any questions about the Legal Food Frenzy, please do not hesitate to contact Laura Lester at 256-653-3535 or llester@afba.org.
