Attorney General Steve Marshall Announces Conviction of Montgomery County Man for Possession of Child Pornography

(MONTGOMERY) – Attorney General Steve Marshall announced the conviction of a Montgomery County man for possession of child pornography. Nicholas DeWayne Done, 41, of Pike Road, pleaded guilty yesterday in Montgomery County Circuit Court to one count of possession of obscene matter depicting a person under the age of 17.

Done was sentenced to 10 years, which was split for him to serve one year in custody followed by a term of two years of supervised probation. Upon his release, he will be required to register as a sex offender and abide by all requirements of Alabama’s Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

“Possession of child pornography is a devastating crime, damaging our society and wreaking terrible harm to the children who are its most tragic victims,” said Attorney General Marshall. “It is important that we stop it wherever we can, and send a message that those who break this law will be held to account and punished for their crimes.”

Attorney General Marshall commended his Criminal Trials Division for its successful prosecution of this case, in particular Assistant Attorneys General Jillian Evans and Tara Ratz, as well as the Cybercrime Unit of his Investigations Division.
